

CFO LEADERSHIP SELF-ASSESSMENT: SPEAKING LEADER

For personal leadership assessment and personal growth development after a CFO retreat.

This form may also be used to debrief after a retreat with a mentor or rostered leader.

Questions to ask yourself after speaking at a camp:

Speaking Ministry:

1. Did I set ministry goals before camp? How well did I meet those goals? What hindered them?
2. How well did the truth of Jesus Christ in my life come across as I shared?
3. How well did I engage these people in my talks: youth, hearing impaired, distracters and interrupters, part/time visitors
4. What was the best part of speaking ministry at this retreat?
5. If the retreat had a theme, how well did I integrate their theme with my sharing times? If the retreat did not have a theme, did I have an integrated message for the week?
6. How well did I work with other Speakers/Song & Rhythms Leaders in the flow of the retreat?
7. How did I do in mentoring/discipling a particular person at this retreat? Who was that?
8. Did I give "guest" time to anyone to speak? How did I integrate them with my set?
9. Did I do anything new and creative with my talks at this retreat?
10. What tools in my speaking toolbox are working well and what needs refining?
11. What are my strengths in speaking? What are my weaknesses?

Council Ring/camp relations:

1. How did I interact with the Council Ring?
2. Was I a participant in the Council Ring meetings or just an observer?
3. How did I handle any decisions from the Council Ring that I disagreed with?
4. Did I attend all Council Ring meetings when I was expected to?
5. How did I model the following character traits: timeliness, respect for authority, honoring of leaders
6. What did I learn from the way this CFO runs things that I can take home?

Camp Participation:

1. Did I attend all parts of the CFO program at this retreat?
2. What did I miss and why?
3. What was the best part of this retreat for me? The worst?
4. Did I enjoy this retreat?
5. Did I interact with more people than the leadership at this retreat?
6. Would I come back to this retreat as a camper? As a leader? Why or why not?

Personal Development & Spiritual Growth:

1. When and how did God speak to me at this retreat?
2. How did I change from beginning to end of this retreat?
3. What personal thing did the Lord work on in me at this retreat?
4. Did I get personal prayer at this retreat?
5. How much quiet time did I get at this retreat?

Glenn Clark background:

1. What was the last Glenn Clark book/pamphlet/article I've read? What was my response to it?

Personal summary:

Three things I can work on as a leader as a result of assessing my participation at this retreat:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Optional: Reviewed with mentor/leader: _____ Date: _____

CFO Retreat: _____

CFO LEADERSHIP SELF-ASSESSMENT: YOUTH LEADER

For personal leadership assessment and personal growth development after a CFO retreat.

This form may also be used to debrief after a retreat with a mentor or rostered leader.

Questions to ask yourself after leading Youth at a camp:

Youth Ministry:

1. Did I set ministry goals before camp? How well did I meet those goals? What hindered them?
2. How did I present the gospel for this age group? What worked in getting the message across?
3. What was the best part of youth ministry at this retreat?
4. How well did I work with anyone I was paired with in youth ministry? How can I improve my teamwork skills?
5. How did I do in mentoring/discipling a particular person at this retreat? Who was that?
6. If the retreat had a theme, did I bring it into youth ministry? How did I do with making youth time part of the flow of the CFO day?
7. Did I do anything new and creative in youth ministry at this retreat?
8. What tools in my youth ministry toolbox are working well and what needs refining?
9. What are my strengths in leading youth? What are my weaknesses?

Council Ring/camp relations:

1. How did I interact with the Council Ring?
2. Was I a participant in the Council Ring meetings or just an observer?
3. How did I handle any decisions from the Council Ring that I disagreed with?
4. Did I attend all Council Ring meetings when I was expected to?
5. How did I model the following character traits: timeliness, respect for authority, honoring of leaders
6. What did I learn from the way this CFO runs things that I can take home?

Camp Participation:

1. Did I attend all parts of the CFO program at this retreat?
2. What did I miss and why?
3. What was the best part of this retreat for me? The worst?
4. Did I enjoy this retreat?
5. Did I interact with more people than the youth or leadership at this retreat?
6. Would I come back to this retreat as a camper? As a leader? Why or why not?

Personal Development & Spiritual Growth:

1. When and how did God speak to me at this retreat?
2. How did I change from beginning to end of this retreat?
3. What personal thing did the Lord work on in me at this retreat?
4. Did I get personal prayer at this retreat?
5. How much quiet time did I get at this retreat?

Glenn Clark background:

1. What was the last Glenn Clark book/pamphlet/article I've read? What was my response to it?

Personal summary:

Three things I can work on as a leader as a result of assessing my participation at this retreat:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Optional: Reviewed with mentor/leader: _____ Date: _____

CFO Retreat: _____

CFO LEADERSHIP SELF-ASSESSMENT: DEVOTION IN MOTION/RHYTHMS LEADER

For personal leadership assessment and personal growth development after a CFO retreat.

This form may also be used to debrief after a retreat with a mentor or rostered leader.

Questions to ask yourself after leading Rhythms at a camp:

Devotion in Motion/Rhythms Ministry:

1. Did I set ministry goals before camp? How well did I meet those goals? What hindered them?
2. How did I do moving from fun individual action motions to group interaction and ministry times?
3. Did I present the “why we do this” of Rhythms in a natural way as we were doing it?
4. How well did I engage these people in Rhythms: youth, children, mobility impaired, p/t visitors
5. What was the best part of Rhythms at this retreat?
6. Did I give “guest” time to anyone to lead a Rhythm? How did I integrate them with my set?
7. How do I rate my spontaneity and creativity in moving from speaker time into Rhythms? How comfortable was I with changing my plan to fit the flow of the day?
8. Did my Rhythms reflect the retreat theme if there was one?
9. Did I design a Rhythms set that I would enjoy going to?
10. What tools in my Rhythms toolbox are working well and what needs refining?
11. What are my strengths in leading Rhythms? What are my weaknesses?

Council Ring/camp relations:

1. How did I interact with the Council Ring?
2. Was I a participant in the Council Ring meetings or just an observer?
3. How did I handle any decisions from the Council Ring that I disagreed with?
4. Did I attend all Council Ring meetings when I was expected to?
5. How did I model the following character traits: timeliness, respect for authority, honoring of leaders
6. What did I learn from the way this CFO runs things that I can take home?

Camp Participation:

1. Did I attend all parts of the CFO program at this retreat?
2. What did I miss and why?
3. What was the best part of this retreat for me? The worst?
4. Did I enjoy this retreat?
5. Did I interact with more people than the leadership at this retreat?
6. Would I come back to this retreat as a camper? As a leader? Why or why not?

Personal Development & Spiritual Growth:

1. When and how did God speak to me at this retreat?
2. How did I change from beginning to end of this retreat?
3. What personal thing did the Lord work on in me at this retreat?
4. Did I get personal prayer at this retreat?
5. How much quiet time did I get at this retreat?

Glenn Clark background:

1. What was the last Glenn Clark book/pamphlet/article I've read? What was my response to it?

Personal summary:

Three things I can work on as a leader as a result of assessing my participation at this retreat:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Optional: Reviewed with mentor/leader: _____ Date: _____

CFO Retreat: _____

CFO LEADERSHIP SELF-ASSESSMENT: MUSIC/SONG/WORSHIP LEADER

For personal leadership assessment and personal growth development after a CFO retreat.

This form may also be used to debrief after a retreat with a mentor or rostered leader.

Questions to ask yourself after leading Music at a camp:

Worship Ministry:

1. Did I set ministry goals before camp? How well did I meet those goals? What hindered them?
2. How well did I move the group from upbeat praise to more intimate worship?
3. Did I model personal worship without getting lost in worship so no one could follow me?
4. How well did I include these people in worship: different generations, hearing impaired, visitors
5. What was the best part of leading music at this retreat?
6. How was my music repertoire? Was it appropriate for this retreat? How did I handle "requests"?
7. How did the transition from worship to speaker go? Was it awkward or smooth?
8. If working with other musicians, how did I model being the leader as well as team member?
9. Did I speak too much, too little, or just right while leading worship?
10. If the retreat had a theme, how well did I integrate it into the music?
11. Did I change my worship set to move as the flow of the retreat changed?
12. What tools in my Music toolbox are working well and what needs refining?
13. What are my strengths in leading Music? What are my weaknesses?

Council Ring/camp relations:

1. How did I interact with the Council Ring?
2. Was I a participant in the Council Ring meetings or just an observer?
3. How did I handle any decisions from the Council Ring that I disagreed with?
4. Did I attend all Council Ring meetings when I was expected to?
5. How did I model the following character traits: timeliness, respect for authority, honoring of leaders
6. What did I learn from the way this CFO runs things that I can take home?

Camp Participation:

1. Did I attend all parts of the CFO program at this retreat?
2. What did I miss and why?
3. What was the best part of this retreat for me? The worst?
4. Did I enjoy this retreat?
5. Did I interact with more people than the leadership at this retreat?
6. Would I come back to this retreat as a camper? As a leader? Why or why not?

Personal Development & Spiritual Growth:

1. When and how did God speak to me at this retreat?
2. How did I change from beginning to end of this retreat?
3. What personal thing did the Lord work on in me at this retreat?
4. Did I get personal prayer at this retreat?
5. How much quiet time did I get at this retreat?

Glenn Clark background:

1. What was the last Glenn Clark book/pamphlet/article I've read? What was my response to it?

Personal summary:

Three things I can work on as a leader as a result of assessing my participation at this retreat:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Optional: Reviewed with mentor/leader: _____ Date: _____

CFO Retreat: _____